

OCTOBER 1, 2016 - CORPORATE

Domain Capital Advisors announces creation of new timber business unit — Domain Timber Advisors

Atlanta, GA — Domain Capital Advisors (Domain) is pleased to announce its partnership with two leading timberland-related investment professionals to form Domain Timber Advisors (DTA). DTA manages timberland-related investments for public and private pension plans, corporations, foundations, endowments, and high-net-worth individuals. DTA will be led by its managing directors — Mark Foley, CFA and Joe Sanderson.

Mr. Foley joins Domain with over sixteen years of timberland experience including his latest position at US Trust where, since 2009, he was responsible for the sourcing, acquisition, and for the on-going management of timberland assets held in investment and trust accounts. Similarly, Mr. Sanderson joins Domain after seven years at US Trust where his forestry and timber experience included: Strategic Harvest Planning, Road Design, Reforestation Planning, Land Sale Appraisal, Acquisition Integration, P & L Responsibility, Budgeting/Forecasting, Timber Marketing, Fiduciary Investment Management and several other critical skill areas related to timberland investment. Together, Messrs Foley and Sanderson were responsible for capital raising, investing and actively managing approximately $900 million in domestic timberlands while at US Trust.

“After working as a team for so many years at US Trust,” said Joe Sanderson, “Mark and I felt the timing was perfect to bring our experience to Domain in order to develop timberland opportunities for investors who understand and appreciate Domain's diversified approach to investing.”

Domain Timber Advisors timberland professionals utilize a proven investment strategy that targets asset opportunities in defined sectors of timberland markets and combine proven forestry management practices with institutional quality asset management and reporting.

Domain Capital Advisors Senior Managing Director, Patrick R. Leardo, commented, “The creation of Domain Timber Advisors is a natural extension of our real estate and alternative investment strategy. It strengthens and expands our diversity across asset classes of our investment offerings for our clients.”

About Domain Capital Advisors

Domain Capital Advisors, LLC is an SEC-registered, institutional investment advisor with approximately $3.8 billion in assets under management. Investment concentrations include real estate, private equity, venture capital, media and entertainment, structured debt, and select fund investments. Domain's mission is to partner with a select group of institutional investors to develop meaningful long-term relationships by delivering trustworthy guidance, personalized client-service and exceptional financial performance. Founded in 2008, Domain is headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia with additional offices in Florida and the New York metro area.